

Inetasia signs contract with Royal & SunAlliance Insurance (Thailand) Limited

Bangkok, Thailand, (September 7th, 2001) – Inetasia announced today that it has signed a contract with Royal & SunAlliance Insurance (Thailand) Limited (R&SA), one of the world's largest international insurance groups, where Inetasia will develop their Data Enquiry Centre which will provide multiple reporting tools for their staff, brokers, direct customers and end users.

“Revolutionary changes have taken place over the last three years. The development of the Internet has presented companies like ours with a new set of opportunities and challenges we must evaluate and develop where appropriate. We can now develop stronger, deeper relationships with our customers and intermediaries as well as entering whole new areas of activity we have not been involved with previously.” stated by Mr.Boonsuk Siriprasertsak, CIO of Royal & SunAlliance Insurance (Thailand) Limited.

“Inetasia was selected by Royal & SunAlliance to build their Data Enquiry Centre as we were able to understand their business and technical objectives and develop the tools required to meet those objectives” stated Inetasia’s CEO, Gregory Smyth.

About Inetasia

Inetasia is an independent software development company with a strong commitment to solving business problems using the Internet, web-based applications and information technologies.

Inetasia develops, markets and supports application software solutions for e-commerce and digital platforms. With multi-disciplinary business professionals and over seventy (70) software and application developers, Inetasia provides high-value technology solutions to the global marketplace. Inetasia believes in a team approach that begins with the client and includes industry experts to ensure delivery of unparalleled strategies and implementations.

Inetasia is committed to delivering flexible, scalable and reliable solutions with robust functionality to allow clients to concentrate on their core business.